Children's Workshop

Our next workshop will be for children in grades 4 through 7. No theatrical experience is required. Fran Stineman will lead the children through a series of workshops that offer a humorous introduction to Shakespeare, ending with a one-night-only performance of All The World's A Stage on February 22. The first meeting will take place at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, January 22, at the Haufbrau Haus (Rt. 286 East, across from Airport Road). Anyone interested in taking part in the workshop is welcome. For details on this workshop, please contact Fran at 724-465-8228.

For more information on workshops in general, please visit www.indianaplayers.com.

The Indiana Players' Major Fund Raising Campaign

It's the start of a new year. Some people may work hard on their resolutions, others folks may do better without them.

For many, family and friends help to fill the spirit of the season, and gifts play an important role. Although the holidays are now over and a new year has started, we hope that your generosity will continue. The Indiana Player's Major Fundraising Campaign is an opportunity for you to invest in the future of your local theater. Many people have already sent in their Certificate of Support, but it is important that others interested in community theater step forward as well.

If you already sent in your donation or pledge, thank you. If not, please consider doing so. If you can't locate your support form, just contact Fran Stineman at 724-465-8228, or visit our website at www.indianaplayers.com.

Volunteers of the Month

Our thanks go to anyone and everyone who has ever helped the Indiana Players in the past. Thank you for all the support you have given. You have helped keep community theater alive in the Indiana area, and we have striven to bring quality family entertainment to you. We look forward to continuing our relationship.
