Our Search Continues

After examination by theater architects and consultants, it has been determined that the amount of work required to turn the former Haufbrau Haus restaurant into a theater was beyond our group's means. Our fundraising campaign continues, however, as does our search for suitable land for construction or with a current building that we can call home. The goal of our fundraising campaign is still to find a location that can provide a workable 500-seat auditorium and scene shop.

We will certainly welcome any suggestions from our members for site possibilities. In the meantime, please remember that this is an opportunity for you to invest in the future of your community theater. If you haven't done so already, please show your support of the Indiana Players by returning your Certificate of Support with your pledge and/or donation.

Please keep in mind that the monetary state and federal community grants that we are and will be seeking also take in account the percentage of community support that we can document. This shows the Grant committies that our community is behind us. So although we would greatly appreciate the return of your Certificate with a pledge of any amount, the mere fact that you return your completed Certificate signifies your support in our endeavour to keep live theater prevalent in Indiana County.

If you can't locate your support form, just contact Fran Stineman at 724-465-8228 or visit our website at www.indianaplayers.com.

As always, thank you for your past and future support.

Upcoming Show...

The next Indiana Players' production will be the Tennessee Williams classic Cat On a Hot Tin Roof, directed by Matt Kubala. This Pulitzer Prize-winning play is the powerful story of the rivalries and misunderstandings that tear apart a Southern family when its leader, Big Daddy, must face the end of his life. Show dates are April 18, 19, 20, 25, 26, and 27. Auditions will take place on March 10 and 11.

Locations for auditions and performances are still being firmed up, and will be announced in the next newsletter and on our website at www.indianaplayers.com.

Volunteer of the Month—Jeff Tobin of Henry Hall Office Products, for lending office space for the Shakespeare Team rehearsals, as well as for rehearsals for the IPI/Hummingbird Theater production of A Sunny Morning.
