It's time for another garage sale, and more!

A combination garage sale and holiday flea market will be held at the Chevy Chase Community Center on Saturday, November 22, from 9:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. We will be moving things from the warehouse on Friday afternoon and evening. If you are able to help on Friday or Saturday, please get in touch with Peggy Buckley at 724-254-1207 or pbuckley@yourinter.net.

In addition, if you would like to rent a table to sell your own things, the cost is just $10. Please contact Peggy for more information. This is the last sale of the year, so please chip in and help make this another big success!

Coming this holiday season:

The Greatest Christmas Pageant Ever

Auditions will be held on Sunday, November 9, from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. at the Unitarian Church on Twolick Drive in White Township. (Take the third right turn on East Pike, after the turnoff to the airport/Clymer. The church is on a hill about a mile down on your left.)

The show calls for four men, six women, eight boys, and nine girls. Children should be in 4th grade through junior high school. Rehearsal schedules will be handed out at auditions.

It is the tale of a church congregation that is staging their annual Christmas Pageant. But this year, the six Herdman children (the “worst kids in the whole history of the world”) have decided to take part. Because of their participation, the show truly becomes the best one ever. It’s a fun show with an appropriate moral, and a perfect show for family casting.

Performance dates are Saturday, December 13, at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, December 14, at 2:00 p.m. at the Indiana Junior High School. For more information, please call Fran Stineman at 724-465-8228 or e-mail her at stineman@adelphia.net.

Calling all talented people! Are you interested in directing or being involved in Reader’s Theater? Have you written something that you would like to see performed? Would you like to be in a short performance? Do you have something ready to perform but don’t know what to do with it?

The Indiana Players are looking to assemble a repertoire of small shows, readings, acts, performances, etc. Ideally, these would be technically simple to produce, requiring minimal props, costumes, and sets. Reader’s Theater is a fun way to do theater, especially performances that can be done in a small space, such as in a restaurant for entertainment at meetings and dinners, or in church meeting rooms.

If you are interested, please contact Fran Stineman at 724-465-8228 or via e-mail at stineman@adelphia.net.

The Lollapalooza Bird

The curtain recently came down on a successful series of shows. The Lollapalooza Bird was performed as a dinner theater at the Upper Crust restaurant. Our thanks go out to director John Sinclair, his wife June, and the show’s stars: Peggy Buckley, Bruce Dries, Megan Klingensmith, Jolene Malloy, Judy Pierce, and Dom Versace.

We especially want to thank Sharon and Herb Lee for their generous help in allowing the show to be performed in their restaurant and for the delicious meals they served.
