Every year, the Indiana Players fields a team of teenagers to take part in the Pittsburgh Public Theater's annual Shakespeare Monologue and Scene Contest. As part of the warm-up to the competition, the team performs at a dinner each year before the preliminary round of the contest.

Gala Renaissance Dinner

This event will be held at the Rustic Lodge in Indiana on February 4, 2005. In addition to great food and the Shakespearean monologues and scenes, other performers are welcome and encouraged to participate— jugglers and jokesters, musicians and magicians, crafters and conjurers, tumblers, animal acts, singers, apple sellers... or anything else to recreate a medieval Elizabethan atmosphere (pick-pockets and cut-purses are discouraged!). If you would like to be involved in the festivities, either as a performer or dinner guest, please contact Peggy Buckley at 724-254-1207 or e-mail her at pbuckley@yourinter.net. Details about the Renaissance Dinner will be revealed in upcoming newsletters and on the Indiana Players website: www.indianaplayers.com.

New Opportunities...

Although the proposed Carino Center for the Performing Arts did not come to pass, the Indiana Players are still determined to find a new home. Various properties are being visited and options are being weighed, such as available parking, potential seating, convenience of location and entry, room for storage and a workshop, and of course cost. The Players are continuing the search, and we welcome suggestions from members and friends for possible sites. Please pass the word along to keep your eyes and ears open for potential sites. Not sure? Let us know and we'll check it out! Who knows? You may be the one to find the location of our new home.
