The Bad Seed

Now in its final weekend, The Bad Seed has consistently played to capacity seating at the Philadelphia Street Playhouse. Reserve your seats NOW for the final shows! Call 724-463-7122.

The Bad Seed is the story of Rhoda Penmark, a "perfect" little girl who lives with her mother and a doting but often absent father. They live in a sheltered world of private schools and manicured lawns, shepherded in Daddy's absence by a doting landlady. Their lovely little world begins to unravel when one of Rhoda's classmates turns up dead. As the body count mounts, the question is posed: Can evil be inherited?

Directed by R. L. Stoerckel, this gripping play stars Tom Angelo, Robyn Bailey-Orchard, John Barbor, Mary Jo Bowes, James Chapman, Monica DeLoreto, Tony DeLoreto, Bruce Dries, Olivia Kirsch, Alissa McDaniel, and Bronwyn Stevens.

Remaining performances are January 11, 12, and 13 — Friday and Saturday at 8:00 p.m., Sunday at 2:00 p.m.

Tickets: $10.00 — Students/Seniors: $8.00. For advance tickets and ticket information, call 724-463-7122.

THE CEMETERY CLUB

This popular play about the lives of three Jewish widows is funny and poignant; full of laughter and tears. Lifetime friends Ida, Doris, and Lucille call themselves "The Cemetery Club." Every month they meet at Ida's house in New York for tea, then trundle off to the cemetery to remember the good times and gossip with deceased husbands. Sam, the butcher, meets the widows at the cemetery while visiting his late wife and changes their lives forever.
