Harvey

The story is about Elwood P. Dowd, a good-natured, mild-mannered eccentric who is known in all of the cafeterias and saloons in his small town. Elwood is polite and cheerful and always friendly toward any strangers he might encounter, and he has just one problematic character trait: his best friend is an invisible six-foot-tall rabbit, Harvey. His sister and her daughter try to have Elwood committed to the local sanitarium, where the behavior of the prominent psychologist and his staff raise the age-old question of who is more dangerous to society: the easygoing dreamer with a vivid imagination or the people who want him to conform to the accepted version of reality.

Show dates are June 20, 21, 22, 27, 28, and 29.

Fridays & Saturdays 8:00 p.m. , Sundays 2:00 p.m.

Tickets: $10.00 — Students/Seniors: $8.00

For ticket information, call Aggie at 724-349-3541.

Summer Student Workshops, 2008

Workshop 1

8 to 12 year olds

June 9 – 27, 10:00 am to 1:00 pm

Workshop 2

13 to 18 year olds

July 7 – 25

Each participant must bring his/her own lunch. Both workshops will be at the Philadelphia Street Playhouse, 725 Philadelphia Street in Indiana. No previous stage experience is necessary.

Participants will receive experiences in acting, voice projection, stage movement, creating characters, dance, and scene structure. The cost for each participant is $125 for a three-week session. As a culminating activity, our workshop actors will take part in a production of Godspell, 101 Dalmatians, or School House Rock as part of our 2008-2009 Season.

All workshop facilitators have received appropriate clearance from child protection authorities.

Workshop participants will be limited in number: first come and paid, first accepted. Call Jim Chapman at 724-464-0725.
