The Spotlight

Philadelphia Street Playhouse

October 2010

This month at the Playhouse...

"Let's do the Timewarp again!" A straight-laced couple runs into some very strange characters when, on a dark and stormy night, their car blows a tire near an eerie castle in the middle of the woods. This cult classic features cross-dressing vampires, transsexual aliens, and a whole lot of rock 'n' roll. Surprises abound around every corner, and you won't believe what's hidden in the freezer.

Audience costumes and participation are encouraged! Spend your Halloween with us!! Directed by Ray Cupples.

OCTOBER 22, 23, 24, 29, 30, & 31

All Tickets are $10 for this show.

Another Playhouse Clean-up Day

On Saturday, October 16, the Indiana Players will be having our last clean-up day for 2010. Please come and help us finish up some projects before the holiday season begins. As you probably know, the Playhouse is still updating areas, and we need everyone's help to get these complete. The more people we have volunteer the more projects we can complete. So please, give a few hours on Saturday and make the Playhouse more beautiful. We will be working from 10am until 5pm. We sincerely hope to see you there!

-James Dixon, Indiana Players President

Volunteers are still needed...

...to work the box office and to usher for upcoming shows. It's a great opportunity to get involved behind the scenes, and you get to catch most of the show while you're doing it! Maybe next show you could be taking tickets instead of buying them. How's that for a money saving tip? But the best part is that we all win!! Please call Leslie at (724) 349-3928 if you are interested in helping.
