It's Shakespeare Time Again!

This year's Pittsburgh Public Theater Shakespeare Monologue and Scene Contest will place the end of February. Coaching sessions for 9th through 12th graders begin Wednesday, October 14 at 6 pm at Christ Episcopal Church on Philadelphia Street. For further information or to register please call Peggy Buckley at 724-254-1207 or e-mail her at pbuckley@yourinter.net. A short, memorized piece from a Shakespeare play should be ready for the first session. It does not have to be the monologue you will be performing for the contest.

Our Shakespeare Team has had great success in the past and the participants not only learn a lot but have a great time. There are professional coaching sessions available at the drama department of Carnegie Mellon University and at the PPT itself.

One Act Festival

Have you ever wanted to direct, but were hesitant about undertaking the time commitment of a full show? Then the IPI One Act Festival is for you! We are looking for six to eight directors to direct fifteen minute one-act plays in the spring. If you would like to direct, but don't have a one act in mind, we can help you find one. We will also accept original one-act submissions, so if you've ever wanted to try your hand at playwriting, now is the time!

For further information, contact Katrina Kayden at katrina_marie325@hotmail.com, or leave a message for her at the Playhouse (724-464-0725). See you at the theater!
